

AEPA CONFERENCE: DEVELOPING AREA PARTNERSHIPS

Sheffield Hallam University

Thursday, 13 June 2019

10.00 Welcome to Sheffield

Stephen Betts, Learn Sheffield

10.05 – Area partnerships in a shifting education and political landscape

Estelle Morris, Baroness Morris of Yardley and Christine Gilbert

Joint Chairs AEPA

- The current context, the importance of area partnerships and the value of the AEPA
- Supporting school effectiveness: practice across partnerships

11.00 Demonstrating Impact

Kevan Collins, CEO, Education Endowment Foundation

11.45 Share and Learn Workshops A choice of one now and another in the afternoon

- School improvement-

-Looking in depth at the models in two different areas: focusing on both primary and secondary

Led by Stephen Betts (Learn Sheffield) and Tracy Ruddle (BEP)

-Working with teaching schools

Led by Richard Gill, Teaching Schools Council Chair

- Measuring and evaluating the impact of partnerships

Led by EEF and Andrew de Csillery (HfL) Tbc

- Growing partnerships – insights into the various stages of partnership growth

Led by Barking and Dagenham, Oldham and Surrey. Tbc

- Health, well-being and inclusion - the broader roles partnerships can play in their local areas

Led by Tim Boyes (BEP) and Jon Abbey (Camden Learning)

1.0 Lunch

2.00 What do we know about the self-improving system?

Professor Toby Greany, Chair in Education, University of Nottingham

2.45 Share and Learn Workshops: a repeat of the morning's workshops

3.45 Reflections on the day and next steps

Estelle Morris, Baroness Morris of Yardley and Christine Gilbert

4.00 Finish